Question Bank for Unit Test - I

1. Explain in detail software process framework.

2. Explain in detail Prescriptive models for software development

3. Explain in detail Waterfall model for software process development.

4. What are different incremental models for software development? Explain in detail.

5. Explain in detail Evolutionary Process Models for software process development.

6. Explain in detail Prototyping Model for software process development

7. Explain the importance of requirement engineering.

8. Why requirement elicitation is difficult? What is meant by requirement negotiation? Why requirements need to be stable and correct?

9. What do you mean by requirement inception, elicitation and validation?

10. What are requirements engineering tasks? Explain in detail.

11. Describe two real life situations in which the customer and the end-user is the same. Describe two situations in which they are different.

12. Explain the tasks done during elicitation and requirement management